AULTMAN & MILLER'S PATENT, WITH REAR BAR.

The attention of Farmers is invited to the above celebrated Mower, which presents many advantages over all other machines. It has two driving wheels, which act together or separately, keeping the knives in motion during the entire time of cutting. A double hinge joint connects the cutter bar to the frame, allowing it to conform to all uneven surfaces of the ground, and when not in use to be folded over the front of the machine, rendering it as portable as any two-wheeled vehicle.

It is light draft, free from side draft, simple, durable, easily managed, works well in any grass, is safe for the driver, and is in all its parts the most substantial Mower ever offered to the farmer. Circulars furnished on application. For sale by

TOBACCO STEMMERIES.

I offer for sale my two Tobacco Stemmeries—one in Camden, Ray county, Mo.; the other in Brunswick, Chariton county, Mo.

These Stemmeries are well known to many engaged in the Tobacco trade in the West, and are located at two of the best points on the Missouri river for securing a good purchase of Tobacco. I will sell either one or both of said Stemmeries. To any one wishing to embark in the Tobacco Stemming business another season, such an opportunity for securing a good location has never been offered in the West.

Any one wishing to purchase will please address my agent, Mr. GEORGE F. HILL, of St. Louis, Mo., who will give all information as to price, terms, &c., which will be liberal. JOHN KIRKPATRICK.

Valuable Land for Sale.

I offer to sell my farm, on the road to Bardstown, and part of the home tract of the late Ben. Hardin. The land is of superior quality, bounded by Beargrass Creek on one side, and by the Bardstown road and 300 acres of bottom land—a part cleared—the greater and best part an unbroken forest of Beech and Poplar, the timber of both be converted to the turnpike road. Rising from the river there is a second bottom of land supposed by none in this county from the second bottom and easy ascent to undulate to the table land, which, gently undulating, presents a favorable surface for cultivation and in quality not surpassed in Nelson county. The timber, consisting of oak in great abundance, black walnut, blue ash, beech, and sugartree, proclaim, combining water, timber, locality, and the quality of cultivation, a farm and land in cultivation, one of the best locations for a stock farm—mill in the distance, such a mill could be located on the tract two or two and a half miles from Bardstown. The Beech Fork is often navigable for crafts. A turnpike to New Haven at 15 miles reaches the railroad. A turnpike from Bardstown to Louisville with fair prospects of a railroad to intersect the L. & R. R. R. The low bottom are admirably adapted to the culture of the most profitable grasses, timothy, orchard and blue grass, clover, and corn—the table land for the lighter grains, and from its elevation adapted to the culture of fruits of every description and the grape. There is now on it an orchard of one hundred and two trees of choice selections.

The tract is divided into two separate tracts, one adjoining Nudd's Mill tract, containing 308 and the other 561 acres. Each tract is susceptible of two distinct residences, which would be supplied by fine bold-running springs of cool water.

There is no town in the State, including the vicinity, better supplied with schools, male and female, than Bardstown. Combining all the advantages, it is a most desirable location for a residence.

For further information, I refer at Bardstown, who will on application show the land. I will be at Bardstown on the fourth Monday in September, circuit court.

AGUE AND FEVER OR CHILLS AND FEVER

SPEEDILY CURED BY

Smith's Tonic Syrup.

THE attention of dealers in Drugs and Medicines and persons afflicted with Chills and Fever or Ague and Fever is respectfully solicited to this celebrated medicine, which has rarely obtained a competition throughout the country, and for many years has maintained its superiority over all other remedies as a safe, certain, speedy, and permanent cure for Chills and Fever or Ague and Fever.

The public may rely upon the fact that it is entirely vegetable in its composition, and made from the best, purest, carefully selected reliable articles, and is always accepted by the proprietor in person, and therefore he can warrant it uniform in quality.

Its Diaphoretic and Alterative properties combined with its great Tonic qualities rather it is simply superior to Quinine and other remedies as a cheap and safe medicine. Its Tonic properties are such that but one bottle is required and only one dose to be administered.

It does not produce Headache, Giddiness, Ringing of the Ears, or any of the unpleasant effects which so frequently attend the use of Quinine or other remedies, but may be given in all cases and under all circumstances whatever to Females, Infants, and all persons who are debilitated or have the most delicate constitutions, without the least apprehension of any injurious or even unpleasant effects.

Practitioners of medicine who have not yet tried it, and afflicted persons who have not used it, are respectfully invited to give it but a fair trial, and they will then be convinced of its great superiority over other remedies and that it possesses all the virtues claimed for it.

It is not only perfectly safe and innocuous in its effect, but in no case whatever has it been known to fail in curing Chills and Fever or Ague and Fever, whether of short or long standing, if the directions were strictly followed and carried out.

This medicine has become a staple remedy and for years has been extensively used throughout the States of Kentucky, Tennessee, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas, Arkansas, Missouri, Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin, Ohio, Indiana, Nebraska, Pennsylvania, Michigan, and California, and more lately in Kansas Territory, and has permanently cured near 2,000,000 of cases in all its varied forms and conditions, many of which were from one to three years' standing, and had resisted all the usual remedies known to the country, and which had become chronic under the influence of the Ague poison, and which had baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians. The great success that has attended its use has created a large number of imitations, and the public are cautioned against imposition, and should see that the genuine article is used, which can be obtained of the proprietor in person, and of his agents throughout the country, who procure it from him.

Persons living in districts of country subject to Chills and Fever, Ague and Fever, or Bilious Fever would do well to keep a considerable quantity on hand.

The proprietor has in his possession a large number of certificates and other testimonials from persons who have used this medicine as well as from Physicians, Druggists, and others, showing its superiority over all other remedies for Chills and Fever or Ague and Fever and he could obtain many thousands more or enough to fill up a large volume, but he does not deem it necessary, as it is already extensively and favorably known to the public generally.

A BULLION BANK.—A movement is in progress in New York for the establishment of a bullion bank. The plan is to found a bank which shall discount only to the extent of its own capital. Its deposits are not to be used, any part of them, by the bank, but are to be retained always in actual cash to the order of the several depositors; the deposits will consequently be always, to the full amount, on hand in coin. The revenue of the bank (other than the interest on its own capital) is to consist of small banking commissions charged to depositors; on small accounts more, on large accounts

TUESDAY, OCT. 12, 1858.

ANOTHER DOUGLAS MAN DOOMED.—A dispatch from Washington says:

"It is determined by the Administration to remove Farran, the lately appointed Postmaster at Cincinnati, for his defence of Douglas."

Can this be so? Is this folly never to end? Is the President mad? Mr. Faran is the editor of the Cincinnati Enquirer, was a strong Lecompton man, but acquiesced in the English bill. Like the anti-Lecompton Democrats of Ohio, he considers the Kansas question settled, and has treated it in this light. But the Washington Union will not let it rest. That paper pursues Douglas and his friends with a tirade of abuse, furnishing food for the Black Republican papers and scattering discord among Democrats all over the country. The Enquirer very properly castigated the Union for its malicious and disorganizing course. This seems to have been brought to the attention of the President, and the above dispatch heralds the result.

Can it be possible that the President is thus backing the Union in its furious assault upon Douglas? If so, he has got to behead every high-minded and independent editor in the country, North and South, for they are all down on the Union.

He (Douglas) asks no favor of Mr. Buchanan in return for making the latter President. He simply asks to be let alone, but even that is denied him, and not only that but all good Democrats who acknowledged standard bearer he has long been and who now sympathize with him are outraised, proscribed, and persecuted. When Mr. Faran shall find his head rolling in the dust, it will add another martyr to the bloody list in this State whose only crime has been standing by the doctrines of Standing Sire Lecompton. The three Postmasters, in the principal cities of Ohio, Cleveland, Columbus, and Cincinnati, will then stand in line, the broadest mark of Presidential proscription. Does not the President know that "persecution bellows where it bits," that "to such proscriptive course Douglas men will rise up every where? "The blood of the martyrs is the seed of the church."

Cleveland Plain Dealer.

The editor of the Cleveland Plain Dealer, from which we take the paragraphs above, saw his own official head rolling in the dust two or three months ago. He was, but is not, the Cleveland Postmaster. As editor of the Plain Dealer, he opposed the forcing of Kansas into the Union under the Lecompton Constitution, but, finding himself threatened with ejection from the Post Office, he succumbed to the wretched English bill the moment it was brought forward. Even this degrading submission, however, did not save him—the Buchanan guillotine fell upon his neck.

This was hard usage, but the editor uttered no complaint against the Administration. He bled and suffered as unmurmuringly as our neighbors of the Louisville Democrat did under a similar visitation of the horrid Buchanan axe. It seems, however, that his patience is at last in serious danger of giving way. The "camel's back," though he has humped himself to bear a grievous burden, shows serious signs of feeling the weight of the "last feather." The paragraphs he have quoted indicate sarcastically, that, though the editor of the Plain Dealer had not the courage to deal plainly on account of the wrongs to himself, he is becoming either spunky enough or desperate enough to speak out for others. Unlike the editor of the Louisville Democrat, he makes no effort to relieve the administration of the responsibility it has chosen to take, but charges it with folly, and asks whether the President is a lunatic. He boldly imputes to the President and Cabinet the offenses that the whole country know they have committed and are committing. And it is in vain for our Locofoco neighbors or any body else's Locofoco neighbor to cry peace, peace, when for them there is no peace.

The editor of the Journal attributes the proscription of the Democrat to the administration. Now, we don't suppose the administration was applied of the request for removing the postmaster we referred to; it was the work of persons nearer home—Louisville Democrat.

Ah well, the editor of the Democrat has now apprized the Administration of the reason for the removal of the postmaster referred to, and we shall see whether the Administration will correct the procedure. We are sure that it won't, and we guess the Democrat itself is pretty sure that it won't. The thing will no doubt have to stand, just as the late removal of one of the editors of the Democrat from office and the taking away of the Government advertising from the paper will have to stand.

We really can't see what reason our neighbors of the Democrat can have for thinking that the Administration is so stupid as not to know why it has removed an anti-Lecompton postmaster in Kentucky, but we can easily understand what motive they may have for not being outspoken upon the subject. It isn't in Kentucky alone that anti-Lecompton Democracy is proscribed and persecuted by the Administration—we see the same thing everywhere in the non-slaveholding States. The anti-Lecompton postmasters of Illinois are, as the St. Louis News says, falling before the sharp ax of the Administration like mullen stalks before the scythe. Within the last week there have been removed Joseph Napier, postmaster at Naperville; McElhenny, postmaster at Bloomington; Peter Sweat, postmaster at Peoria; Asman, postmaster at Ottawa; Lamphere, postmaster at Galesburg; Keys, postmaster at Springfield; and Zadig, postmaster at Quincy. Not a Douglas postmaster, that dares either to utter his opinions or even to let their existence be suspected, is spared. The editors of the Louisville Democrat should be ashamed, pursued as they themselves have been by the Administration, to attempt to conceal in its behalf what it doesn't care to conceal in its own behalf.

THE ELECTIONS TO-DAY.—The elections in Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, and Iowa take place to-day. In each of these States the conflict will be a fierce one. There is very little union of the opposition in either of them except Pennsylvania, and even there the union is but partial. We incline to the opinion however that Mr. Buchanan will get a stern and terrible rebuke from his own State. In that event it may happen that even the timidest of the Democratic editor she has proscribed will henceforward have the courage to say what they think of him.

The four States that we have mentioned elect 59 representatives—Pennsylvania 25, Ohio 21, Indiana 7, and Iowa 2. The election will be held throughout the entire House of Representatives, and it is quite probable that the elections to-day will decide the party character of the popular branch of the thirty-sixth Congress. In the present House, these delegations stand, thirty Democrats and twenty-seven opposition, in the following order—Pennsylvania 15 Democrats, 10 opposition; Ohio 9 Democrats, 12 opposition; Indiana 6 Democrats, 5 opposition; Iowa 2 opposition. If the Democrats manage to keep their strength in these several States, the next House of Representatives will probably be theirs.

It is by no means improbable that the Southern Americans will hold the balance of power in the next House, and at any rate we must send men there worthy to hold it.

☞The Norfolk Argus admits that the different Congressional Conventions of Indiana, in Pennsylvania and New Jersey, give unmistakable indications of the growing popularity of a tariff so arranged as to encourage American industry and manufactures. We agree with the Baltimore American, that, as to a high protective tariff, it is what no one aims at or expects. It would be sufficient, in adjusting the details of duties, to arrange them so as to afford fair and adequate encouragement to the skill and labor of our own country. We do not want a high or unjust protective tariff. There ought to be no serious impediment, in the way of raising a sufficient revenue for the wants of the government, to the plan of helping by that means as far as possible the people. Long ago General Jackson declared himself in favor of a "judicious tariff."

☞Mr. Gurley, Republican candidate for Congress in Cincinnati, was formerly a Universalist minister. One of his opponents was trying to persuade an old Methodist not to vote for him. "Do you think you are furthering the cause of religion," said he, "by voting for a Universalist, one who does not believe in a hell?" "Yes," was the old Methodist's reply, "if by the time Mr. Gurley has been in Congress a year he does not find out there is a hell, then I don't understand the present administration. I shall vote for him."

☞A Democratic Glee Club stopped in front of the office of the Cincinnati Enquirer last week, and sang the old campaign song of 1844, "Long live Henry Clay." Were these verses intended as a rebuke to Buchanan who so persistently tried to accomplish Mr. Clay's political death by cowardly falsification and base duplicity?

☞An Illinois correspondent says that Mr. Douglas became so exhausted in speaking upon a recent occasion, that his friends had to hold him up on the stand. He was in as bad a way as the poor dog that was so feeble as to have to lean against the fence to bark.

☞The President, as we have said, is not only removing postmasters, but even postoffices, to spite the friends of Douglas. Our modern Titan would—had he the power—move heaven and earth in his war with the Giant.

☞A writer in the Scientific American inquires why it is that women are fonder of sleep than men. We do not know unless it is because it is that Morpheur, in whose arms the sleeper lies, is male and not female.

☞The last three nights have been so cloudy that hundreds of thousands of persons have been disappointed in their efforts to get a sight of the great celestial fly-brush.

☞The managers of the Crystal Palace, which was recently burned, appear to be getting up a quarrel. As they have no longer a "glass house," they begin to "throw stones."

☞A Wheeling paper says that the Hon. John M. Botts bets upon horse-races and yet is spoken of for the Presidency. Oh, well, Gen. Jackson was pretty seriously spoken of for the same office.

☞A writer in the Philadelphia Press says that the Administration is hiding its head in the sand like an ostrich. It will soon have no sands to hide its head in—its sands will all be run.

☞President Buchanan appears to be a double dealer in all his policy. Perhaps he thinks that, because he looks two ways at once, he can walk two ways at once.

OUR BUSINESS PROSPECTS.—Since the restoration of financial confidence, after the stringent money market and panic, the Journal has had a large and constantly increasing patronage in both its subscription list and advertising department. It would be affectation to conceal that we feel gratified at this, not so much from the mere personal consideration of profit, but because we must regard it as an evidence of public appreciation and satisfaction in regard to the general conduct of our paper. As a medium for business men to advertise their stocks and occupations, we do not think there is a journal west of the mountains which offers greater advantages, in the extent of its circulation, the character of its readers, or its influences in bringing good returns for the sums paid by our advertising friends. As a newspaper, the Journal is always up with the latest dates by mails and telegraph; in its local department great care is taken to make it correct in its financial reports, and reliable on all matters of business interest, while our endeavors have always been directed to giving its columns that variety, freshness, and information which will make it acceptable, and sought after, by the general reader. While our largely increased circulation has made it more valuable for advertisers, we have devoted greater attention to recording the advancement of Louisville in artistic skill and manufacturing ingenuity, hoping by this course to direct attention to our local advantages and resources, for the benefit of the entire community, and to win for our city that pre-eminent position she is destined to occupy in the great valleys of the West.

We are impressed with the importance of the reciprocal duties between the publishers of a paper and the business public. While as journalists we must make our sheet the "abstract and brief chronicle of the times," advocate those political principles which we think will promote the greatest good of the greatest number; guard our common country from its domestic foes, and elevate our city and State to the extent of our ability, the man of business must remember that, in the fulfillment of these duties, we are subjected to heavy expenses, and that they are to be met only by liberal advertising and by aiding us in procuring all the information necessary to the efficient prosecution of our labors. As an equivalent for our exertions, then, we expect an earnest effort on the part of business men to extend our circulation and to make the Journal the recipient of their advertisements, so that it may be a reflex of the activity, energy, and advancement of the city. By thus enlarging our sphere of usefulness, the Journal will be able to aid so much more in giving a larger spread to their business notices and finding the most beneficial returns for the bread they have cast on the waters of business life.

☞The editor of the Democrat said the other day that he would not rule President Buchanan out of the party on account of his serious misinterpretation of the Cincinnati platform. The editor of the Cincinnati Times replies thus:

This is a queer idea, he will "not rule the President out of the party." We think not. Why Mr. Buchanan alone of Democrats has been and strange as it may seem of the Democratic party than the editor of the Democrat ever was or ever will be. We heard once of a prisoner on trial finding the judge guilty and passing sentence on him, and this looks like a repetition of that case. We would inform the editor of the Democrat that the editor of the Enquirer of this city is now trembling in his boots in the hourly expectation of receiving his dismissal as Postmaster here, because some two weeks since he dared to express a word of sympathy for poor Douglas. What does he think of that?

We hope he will tell what he thinks of it. His case is as ludicrous as it is melancholy. He has lost his own head at the hands of President Buchanan, and the heads of his friends are daily falling in all directions at the hands of President Buchanan, yet a sepulchral voice comes from the depths of his trunk through his severed head pipe, proclaiming hollowly that he "will not rule President Buchanan out of the Democratic party." In consideration of his extraordinary forbearance, the Administration must breathe freer and easier—but how does he breathe himself?

☞We have already made mention of the case in which Billy Mulligan, the notorious Locofoco ruffian, indicted for a penitentiary crime, was let off the other day by a Locofoco judge in New York with the paltry fine of $250. Bibles serious with fist and bludgeon were considered by the Locofoco managers as indispensable at the polls on the day of the elections, and so the arrangement was made that he should be sentenced to a fine instead of the State prison, the fine being no doubt made up by custom house contributions. A proof that the whole matter of the sentence was arranged beforehand between the judge and the bully and the bully's friends is found in the fact, that, when his honor, the judge, announced the sentence of $250 fine, the bully immediately pulled the exact amount from his pocket, all rolled up, and handed it over without stopping to count it. Such utterly shameless doings could scarcely ever take place except under the operation of the pestilent system of an elective judiciary.

☞It is very generally believed in Europe that Isabella, the Queen of Spain, is no better than she should be. Mr. Soule, our former minister to her Court, is a handsome fellow, and, as he was not without a reputation for gallantry, the two were very considerably talked about. It is well therefore that the handsome gentleman likely to be our next minister at her Court is above all suspicion. If he shall succeed in buying Cuba of her, even our enemies will not be able to attribute his success to illegitimate influences.

☞We have another speech of Jefferson Davis, of Mississippi, who is still sojourning in Maine. He seems changed from a fierce fire-eater to a warm Union man. We do not wonder at the growing disinclination of the fire eaters to let their men visit the North even for health or amusement. We presume they now see the necessity of enforcing their embargo with the utmost rigor.

☞The Country Gentleman asserts that turkeys will not leave an enclosure in which they are put, if a piece of red flannel is tied round the wing hog among them, or even the ground is something of the same kind of recipe is used by politicians to keep their flock from straying; they attach to them a glittering bauble of office, and vanity keeps them within party bounds.

CELESTIAL RACING.—Tuttle's comet, now to be seen without a telescope, mounted on the constellation Pegasus, has entered the list against Donati's fiery racer, now in Boston, and we anticipate a very exciting race. There is another entry for this sweepstake, but the third has not yet been placed. We bet upon the fellow in Boots.

☞We understand that our friend Col. Wm Preston has just purchased the fine house and lot where he lives, although he intends soon embarking for Spain. We suppose he wants to accustom himself to trading with a view to sharpen himself a little for the buying of Cuba.

☞A Mr. Varley of Illinois has published a letter in favor of the Administration. By changing the last letter of his name, the reader might have his character to a t.

☞We have received a letter purporting to give an account of a pretty important burglary in Carrollton, but it is anonymous, and so we cast it aside.

AMERICAN STATE CONVENTION.—The editor of the Maysville Eagle says with truth that the American Central Committee did not give sufficient notice of the meeting of the last American State Convention, and that, as a consequence, very many of the counties were unrepresented in that body, and he expresses apprehension that the same thing may happen again. He fears that our Central Committee will remain quiet and indifferent in regard to the organization of the American party for the next campaign just the Democracy shall have done half their work. We commend his remarks, copied below, to the consideration of the Committee:

We don't believe in this way of putting off a matter of so much importance to the very last moment. Such a course never fails to leave the organization in a state from which it can be brought to perfect Bro organization. Everything has to be done in the most hurried and confused manner, and the result of course must follow that not near all our party strength is brought to the polls, and we shall have the mortification of meeting a defeat from an enemy whose real strength is no greater than our own.

If a State Convention were announced at this time to meet on the 22d of February next, which, we believe, is the usual time for such a party to hold their, it would not give more time that ought to be occupied in making preparation for it. In the several counties, and in the place, some would not receive it for more than a month, and then, in some instances, as much as one or two months would be occupied in discussing the preliminaries to a county meeting before it would be held. We believe in giving the most ample time for these things to be attended to, so that throughout the State every an opportunity can be kept open for the expression of the sentiments of every candidate that will probably come before the convention for its consideration. Even here in Mason county, if the call for a convention was made next week, we could not, in all probability, get a county meeting together short of the December County Court, and in some places, where mail and traveling facilities are not so good as here, we have no doubt it would take until the month of January to get anything like a full meeting of the party together.

Even if these things did not demand immediate action, the fact that our adversaries have called their convention more than a month ago, and are now busily engaged in laying their plans, and in making an impression on the people, by show and parade, ought in itself to commence to stir us up and make us more active and industrious in beginning our arrangements. In view of these things, we deem it an important matter to the American party for a call to be at once issued for a State Convention, and that immediate preparations be commenced to make it such a meeting as will bring together the most intelligent and influential members of the party from every county in the state. We have heard an expression in regard to the matter from several leading Americans in this and the adjoining counties, and all that we have talked to on the subject concur with us that the earlier the call is made for our convention, the better for us, and the more formidable can be made our strength in the approaching canvass.

I'VE THOUGHT THAT I WOULD LIKE TO BE.

BY SALLIE A. REDDY.

I've heard the sweet-voiced minstrel tell
Of nymphs in their coral cave,
With cheeks the hue of the pink sea-shell,
And eyes like their own blue wave;
And I've thought that I would like to be
As happy as they, and as wild and free,
Living forever—dancing forever
Down in the wild, wild sea.

I've heard of the fairy race that strayed
Out in the starry beam,
And here and there like moonbeams played
Or slept on the dewy flowers;
And I've thought that I would like to be
One of that fairy band,
Living forever—dancing forever
The dreams of the fairy land.

I've heard or read—perchance have dreamed
Of love in its holy trust,
'Till the eye in its living beauty beamed
Too bright for a thing of dust;
And I've thought that I would like to be
One who had known its worship
Living forever—loving forever
Here on this beautiful earth.

I've seen the heart in its holy faith,
Leaving its earthly love,
And gladly turn to that starry path
That death was opening above;
And I've thought that I would like to be
Free from this faint disguise,
Living forever—happy forever
Up in the blue, blue skies.

LEXINGTON, Miss., Oct., 1858.

THE ROMANCE OF PATRIOTISM.—It is astonishing what a deal of talk "Italian patriots" indulge in and how little they act. They fulminate Red Republican edicts against tyrants and feudal oppressors, and every now and then a little spasmodic movement is made. We see now that Mazzini proposes to publish, instead of his former organ, the Italia del Popolo, another to be called Il Pensiero ed Azione, or, Thought and Action. The first number, says a German cotemporary, contains a programme written by Mazzini himself; other portions are by A. Saffi and A. Mario. Kossuth has promised so soon as his health allows to contribute. The programme ends thus: "The object of our journal is to restore the morale of our party, now either distrayed or corrupted by the monarchical presses; to disseminate those ideas by which alone the party can be justified to all the practical organization of the party," &c. We cannot but agree with the Philadelphia Bulletin, which thinks, "if Messrs. Mazzini, Saffi, & Co., instead of working and preaching so much for the party would do a little more toward aiding industry and disseminating a knowledge of manufactures among a people who still tread out their grain with horses and cut it with sickles, they would do far more toward promoting liberty than they are likely to effect by their present manœuvres, during the term of their lives. Unfortunately, this would not keep their pot boiling. They would not be perpetually before the public as heroes, conspirators, dashing fine fellows, dodging the ax and the scaffold, and writing fine manifestoes. Europe will never be freed from her troubles save in one way—by industrial developments. Railroads, factories, mills, science—these are the great levers of freedom, and the aristocracy can join with the community in aiding them, as they are doing in England and in Russia, for they make everybody rich. But work is not in the Mazzini catalogue. It is the romantic role of the conspirator and the hero of liberty which he wants."

TOP LOFTY AS "MORBID."

"If I remain in this vapid village much longer," said Top Lofty, "I shall assuredly die of mental dyspepsia or an intellectual dry rot. The chuckle which says saw in the face of civilization are absolutely appalling to me. Here there is neither the solitude of the country nor the everlasting noise and confusion of the city. Everything has become as familiar as household flies and as insipid as stale small beer. My royal Havana yields me no inspiration, sunshine brings me laziness, twilight no repose, and sparkling Catawba no exhilaration."

"I have become a veritable Sir Charles Coldstream, and my Life Drama has changed to the farce of 'Used Up.' What, after all, is there in life to induce me spare worth the living for? From the cradle of infancy to the coffin of oblivion there is a perpetual struggle against chance and fate. Just as we are about to grasp the butterfly happiness the bee misery presents us with its envenomed sting."

"But," said I, "do you not see divine wisdom in this ever changing world? you would not have it always May? It would be garish and unbearable if the sun forever glared on us with its great unwinking eye. Who would desire a perpetual existence in an Egyptian darkness that might be felt? The delicate odor and beauty of flowers would pall upon our senses and inspire disgust if they were perpetually present. Even the caresses of love cease to us than life would, in time, become odious if they were without cessation."

"The change of seasons, of situation, occupation, and are essential to our happiness. Look at happy existence. The cup of life would indeed be tasteless did it not contain a mixture of sweets and bitters of smiles and tears. Give up the past as you did your boyhood garments—the cast off garments of fashion of to-day, and rather assume the pall and winding sheet than wear the sable mantle of melancholy."

"Indeed," said Top, "you are one of Job's comforters. Like a fingerboard, you point the road to happiness, yet you never advance a foot from your own pitiless position. But let us change the subject or I shall become irksome to me. What are you reading?"

"Reveries of a Bachelor."

"Trash!"

"Why do you say so? The book is, and has been, very popular."

"And for that very reason I pronounce it trash."

"Will you please explain?"

"Well, then, every sentimental noodle who reads it thinks he might have written as well—perhaps justly too—and thus he flatters himself with the idea that he possesses the talent of authorship. Having settled this matter he elevates his own esteem by praising the book—hence its popularity."

"But you do not deny that Ik. Marvel is a man of decided talent, not to say genius?"

"He is undoubtedly a scholar, a man of large observation and experience, and has withal a decided talent for book making. His Bachelor Reveries and Dream Life are tricks of the trade—mere dissolving views. I have known a skillful artist to paint, in the dimness of his doorway, a slate and pencil so truthful as to be mistaken for the reality. This exhibition of his talent was but a piece of light and shade. Even so has the Artist Marvel astonished weak minds with his slate pencil Reveries. This style of thought-writing is to the young men what 'Mother Goose' is to children."

"Thank you! Mr. Marvel and myself are equally indebted for your learned and complimentary critique. I have just finished Hawthorne's 'Seven Gables.' What think you of the author?"

"A man of genius, but there is too much gloom and blight, human misery and mildew about him—at least his 'Scarlet Letter' and 'Seven Gables' prove as much. There is too much of Rembrani and not enough of Claude. He is evidently a man of tender and genial sympathies, but he lives too much in the dark, and colors his pictures with the pencil of a dyspeptic. For instance: he seems to take a grim satisfaction in gloating over the death of old Jaffrey Pyncheon. He dwells on the subject with a sort of fiendish delight, as if this creature of his own brain had afflicted him with an unheard of wrong. There is much of stern reality, however, in his prominent characters, although they are mostly aggravations of human vice and misery. I have often wondered why he did not 'purge his mind of such perilous stuff,' and give the world something that would become a living picture of all the kinder phases of humanity."

"It seems to me," said I, "that would be impossible for him to accomplish. As a Rembrant in authorship, he would be lost in the golden tints and universal warm-heartedness of Claude. Each style may be perfect in its way; and, as we would not be deprived of the brightness of the one, neither could we dispense with the natural grief and gloom of the other."

"We may recur to this subject again," said Top Lofty, as he bowed himself from my presence with a grace that would make the fortune of a French dancing-master.

VIA THE OVERLAND ROUTE.

[From the Alta California.]

Per Bark Ann Stephenson, 14, 6 P. M.

This edition of the Alta California is prepared expressly for the overland mail, via Los Angeles, Fort Yuma, Tucson, El Paso, Fort Smith, St. Louis, and Memphis, Tenn. It contains all the news of this State, and the Pacific coast generally, up to six o'clock this evening. The first overland mail stage leaves this city to morrow at precisely eight o'clock, and is expected to reach Memphis and St. Louis in from twenty-three to twenty-five days.

May the line go through in safety and inside of the 25 days, is the wish of California.

We would earnestly request all newspapers on the route to furnish us with files, and we will return the compliment.

We would also ask all persons on the route of this great overland mail to forward to the Alta California newspaper any items of news of interest to their respective localities.

To all along the route, and to the Valley of the Mississippi, we, of California, send hearty greetings.

LATER FROM OREGON.—Arrival of the Oregon.—The steamship Oregon, Capt. Patterson, arrived in port on the 11th, at 8 o'clock, with dates from Portland to the 8th inst., five days later than previous advices.

Another Indian Fight—Gen. Clarke informs us that Major Garnett, with his command, has had another fresh with the Indians on the Okanagan. Six of them were killed, all of whom participated in the attack on Robinson's party. The Indians in that part of the country have become alarmed at the summary measures of Major Garnett, and it is believed that most of them have retreated to the British possessions or the Blackfeet country. No confirmation of the reported disaster having been received, the General continuing that the whole affair an Indian story.—Portland Standard.

Robinson's Party.—No mention is made in the papers of any news from Robinson's party.

The Battle with the Indians.—We have seen the statement that the circumstances connected with the killing of Lieut. Allen were somewhat as follows:

There is a division among the tribes west of the Columbia river relative to fighting the troops. Some desire to fight and others wish to make peace. Owhi and Qualchen decided to remain hostile, while Cohaute and Chosheekan, with their families, were for peace. The latter separated from the former, and, taking with them their families, were proceeding toward Simoe. They met Maj. Garnett's command, and the chief Cohaute carried with him a flag of truce; they represented themselves and their people as friendly. But an Indian who was with Garnett's command reported that among these Indians were four who had participated in the affair at Robinson, and that the chiefs had lied when they said all in their camp were friendly. This induced Maj. Garnett to detain the chiefs and send for Lieut. Allen with a detachment to surround the Indian camp while the Indians were asleep.

Accordingly, about 3 o'clock on the morning of the 16th, he, with one or two of his men, went into the Indian camp, while the remainder were stationed in readiness to fire at the first signal of distress—Lieut. Allen attempted to rouse them from their sleep, when one of them jumped up and started to run away, and Allen fired at him. At the discharge of his gun the whole camp was aroused, and Allen's men outside fired indiscriminately into the camp, one shot taking effect in the body of Allen, from which he afterwards died. The Indians are reported to have not fired at all. They were all taken prisoners, and the four who were in the fight with Robinson were shot, and the remainder set at liberty.—Portland Standard, 1st inst.

Rumors at the Dalles—Indian Troubles.—Mr. Lot Cannell, of Columbia, Tuolumne county, who came a passenger on the Pacific from Portland, via Victoria, furnishes us with the following statement:

He left the Dalles on the 24th instant, and just before he started, a Government expressman arrived at Fort Simcoe (pronounce Sim co'-ay) with news that Major Robinson's party, on the way to Fraser river, had been attacked, on the Wenatchee river, by a large party of Indian. The fight had lasted four days, Robinson losing one man and ten pack animals, and the fighting was still going on when an expressman was sent, to Fort Simcoe with the news, and immediately after his arrival there the Government express was sent thence to the Dalles. At the time the expressman left, Robinson and the Indians were on opposite sides of the river, but Robinson was preparing to cross over and attack them. Good diggings had been found on the Wenatchee. The white man who was killed was shot with a small stone.

Six hundred soldiers had been ordered, and were soon to march from the Dalles to Fort Simcoe; thence to proceed toward Okanagan, to open the road used by the miners on their way to Fraser river.

It was rumored at the same time—the rumor having come in previously—that the party of Gen. Palmer had all been massacred on the east of the Columbia, near the Okanagan. General Palmer had nineteen wagons in his train and several hundred pack animals. The rumored massacre was credited at the Dalles; and the Portland Standard says it is probably true.

The Confederal Telegraph.—Our Placerville correspondent announces the pleasing intelligence that the work of constructing the telegraph from that place to Salt Lake City had been commenced in earnest.

Fraser River News.—The Sea Bird and Wilson G. Hunt arrived on Saturday at Victoria from Fraser river, but brought no news of special interest. The river still continued high, and the miners were still waiting for the water to fall. Nothing had been heard of Gov. Douglas' proceedings.

The Feeling in Victoria.—The depression still continues in Victoria. Merchandise is selling at very low prices. Merchants can be seen in all the streets, in front of their stores, wearing very gloomy faces, and watching in vain for customers. There is nevertheless a considerable degree of confidence that the mines will prove ultimately rich, though many doubt whether they will be able to sustain themselves until the day of prosperity.

☞Mr. Harrison, the printer of the counterfeit Turkish Caimes, who was held to bail in New York on Thursday, has been honorably discharged, it appearing that he had been doing the work without any knowledge of their character. Mr. Harrison gave up 38 plates, 16 seals of the Turkish mint, 18 seals of the treasury, 20 "Togbras" of the Sultan, (all counterfeit), and about 150,000 copies of the togas "Caimas."

MYSTERIOUS AFFAIR—Large Transaction in Hogs. At an early hour on Tuesday morning last a large number of hogs, estimated at between eight hundred and one thousand, were, it is alleged, mysteriously abducted from the pens connected with Smith's distillery, near Light street extended, South Baltimore, and driven away to parts unknown. The passage of such a body of swine through the city, coupled with the ballooing of the drivers, aroused the residents, and the police were about to arrest the proceedings as unlawful, but, being assured that everything was right, they allowed the parties in charge to pass on. A number of the hogs, however, broke ranks, and yesterday stragglers from the main body could be seen about the southern quarter of the city. Steps have been taken to recover possession of the hogs, and the case will undergo a thorough police investigation.—Baltimore Sun, Oct. 7.

See Reading Matter on First Page.

OFFICE PAPERS.—Persons who live beyond the bounds of our carriers' routes, or in the neighborhood of the city, may be supplied with the Journal, when taken from our office, at $8 per annum; $5 for the half sheet or country Daily, and $2 for the Weekly. Our proximity to the post office, where every one must call for letters or papers, will involve no additional trouble in calling at our office, and by so doing they can take the Journal and be posted up on all the occurrences of the day. We have convenient boxes arranged in which to deposit the papers, so that there will be no delay in their delivery.

A YOUTHFUL ELOPEMENT.—A young gentleman of our city, respectably connected, and a clerk in a wholesale drug house on Main street, disappeared mysteriously on Sunday evening about 9 o'clock. This might have excited apprehensions for his safety, but he was accompanied by a beautiful young lady who lived with her parents at one of our principal hotels, and therefore we trust they will both come back at a proper time in perfect security. Cupid waves his wand and Hymen performs his charming ceremony to convert "friends" on occasions like this to "close relations." We were never run away with, but it must be a pleasant sensation, especially if there is a little romance mixed up in the elopement—bolts and bolts and bars have to be forced or wrenched away, for—

As sweetest fruit is that which forbids,
So fairest maid is she that is withheld.

THE MECHANICS' FAIR.—We have received an official notice that the exhibition of the Institute will close to-morrow evening. Mr. W. L. Kelly is to deliver the valedictory address. He is a young gentleman of talent. We trust the hall for the remaining two nights will be well attended.

☞We are gratified to learn that the cold weather has extended southward, which we hope may be the means of checking the fever. The Avalanche says coats and coal fires were requisite at Memphis on Friday last, and at night the indications were strong for a heavy frost.

THEATRE.—This evening is the last but one of the engagement of the charming Miss Avonia Jones, who, by the way, received a delightful serenade on Saturday night at the Gulf House, and, as she stood at the window acknowledging the compliment, was covered with a shower of bouquets from her enthusiastic admirers. This evening she will repeat, by request, her wonderful personation of "Sybil," and to-morrow night make her last appearance this season. We shall part with her regretfully, but look forward with pleasure to her future visit.

BRINLY'S LABOR SAVING PLOW, PLOW PRESS, AND DRILL.—Of the many inventions and improvements in agricultural machinery which has been produced in the few past years, the patents of T. E. C. Brinly are among the most valuable. His plow is simple and effective, has taken some eighty first class premiums, and won many medals in well contested fields. His plow press and drill is an admirable invention for the manufacture of plows—indeed, it seems indispensable. All farmers appreciate the grain hook and the sod cutter attached to his plows as saving an immense deal of labor. Mr. Brinly can be addressed at Simpsonville, Ky., or ● John Trainor of the City Foundry, in Louisville. Mr. A. Hagan, who is the traveling agent for Mr. Brinly, is now here and will be happy to receive orders or dispose of rights for counties, States, &c., on reasonable terms, with all necessary patterns and full instructions to builders.

LAUNCH.—Capt. Charles Hayes' new boat will be launched from the shipyard of Mr. King, at Jeffersonville, this afternoon. "All the world and his wife" are invited to attend. The boat has a beautiful model. Her cabin is nearly completed.

DISSOLUTION OF PARTNERSHIP.—The partnership hitherto existing in New Orleans under the firm of Ward, Saunder, & Hunt has been dissolved by mutual consent, Mr. Saunders retiring from the firm. The new firm, consisting of Robt. J. Ward and Robt. P. Hunt, will continue the business of the house and liquidate the affairs of the former partnership. Their open policy of insurance covers all cotton to their address except that belonging to persons who have already given contrary instructions.

There is not a more reliable firm in the world than that of Messrs. Ward & Hunt.

☞City and country buyers will please bear in mind that the large two days' cash sale of fall and winter dry goods—all wool cassimere clothing, gents' merino and wool underwear, and ladies' and misses' winter gloves and hosiery—will commence this morning (Tuesday) at 10 o'clock, at the auction rooms of Messrs. S. G. Henry & Co. A majority of the goods are fresh and desirable, having been received since last sale. Also an entire new stock of variety and woolen zephyr goods for city trade.

☞We congratulate our Louisville friends that Judge Z. Wheat, whose high reputation as a lawyer and jurist extends throughout the State, has associated himself with Mr. S. S. Bush in the practice of law here. The firm of Wheat & Bush succeed that of Monroe & Bush. Their advertisement will be found in our columns. Judge W. deserves a warm and cordial reception among us, and his partner has the fullest confidence of all who know him.

YOUNG'S SPIRIT OF THE SOUTH.—This periodical, published weekly in our city, deserves, and we presume receives, a liberal support. A good deal of talent is enlisted in it. Mr. Young writes well upon all subjects. His accomplished wife furnishes exceedingly interesting articles, and Mr. McMurray, a poet of brilliant fancy and a sprightly and excellent prose writer, devotes himself to the literary department. And then our friend Charley Page, one of the finest wits and humorists in America, contributes from the abundance of his genius to the interest of the publication.

I. O. S. M.—The regular meeting of this Order will be held at the hall of Valetta Lodge to-night.

☞The carpenter who fell from a boat at Mr. King's shipyard, was a German named Rudolph Eck. Strange to say he fell from a height of 46 feet and had not a bone broken. In the fall he turned several somersets which probably saved his life. He has almost fully recovered.

☞In another column we give the news from the Pacific by the Overland Mail. It is not important. Mr. Bailey, an agent of the Post Office Department, was killed through, stations by the company in more than two hundred stations on the road. He believes that all the difficulties which attended this trip will be overcome in a short time, and he positively sims the whole enterprise "a perfect success," he Indians gave no trouble.

JEFFERSON CIRCUIT COURT—CRIMINAL TERM. The Grand Jury returned the following bills or felony: Com'th vs. E. R. Linsey, Gertrude Underbauch, Henry Burton, Wm. Pournaire, Thos. Forman, John Smith, alias Mont. Wilson, Dan Lippy, Bernard Nodd, Ellen Evans, Wm. Lewis, Andrew Helfrab, Moses Mann, Charity (a slave), G. W. Johnson, Wm. Wilson, John Shirr, James Tracy and John Arnold, J. H. Garnett and Eliza Garnett, and George Magee.

Com'th vs. Wm. H. Webb, who had been convicted once of bigamy, but was granted a new trial, was found an idiot and indictment dismissed.

Cases set for Trial.—Oct. 11th, Aug. R. Coleman. Oct. 12th, Geo. F. Putman, Isaac Duckwall, and Pournaire. Oct. 13th, Wm. Johnson, Daniel Turnage, Henry Tevis and Sam Slaughter, John Sweeney, Matt. Pine (free), John Meekes (f. m. c). Oct. 14, Edward Brunet and Gottfried Mehler, Alex. Campbell, and Wm. R. Scruggs. Oct. 15, Harvey McClish, Jacob Hofer, Fred. Garner, Jas. McMullen, James Harris and James Bennett. Oct. 16, Andrew Lears, Henry Burton, and Daniel Lippy. Oct. 18, R. E. Lindsey, and John Smith, alias Mont. Wilson. Oct. 19, Presley Ashley. Oct. 20, Fred. Scholtwicht, and Geo. Cope.

The trial of Aug. R. Coleman for the murder of Haywood, was gone into. For the Commonwealth E. Craig, Esq., prosecuting attorney. For the defence, Col. Frank Chambers, of Cincinnati; Thos. A. Kenpass, Esq., of Maysville, and Thos. H. Holt, E. F. Baird, and Joseph B. Lancaster, Esqs.

A jury was empanneled and the court adjourned.

☞Those of our readers who desire to sturdy the violin or flute are informed that Mr. S. A. Murray is now receiving pupils on those instruments. Any communications left at the music stores of D. P. Faulds & Co. or Tripp & Cragg will receive immediate attention.

☞See Mr. Spencer's auction advertisement of a sale of 25 hogsheads of sugar, fish, tobacco, cigars, lassware, old Bourbon whisky, and other groceries and liquors, which takes place this morning at ten o'clock, at his auction rooms. This sale should command the attention of buyers.

LOUISVILLE AND NASHVILLE RAILROAD.—Passengers by this road will bear in mind that they can get a genteel breakfast at the junction of the Louisville and Nashville and Lebanon branch. House kept by Mr. H. K. Wells.

☞The U. S. Government has purchased the Masonic Temple in Boston, for the use of the U. S. Courts.

☞Mr. Preston, as was anticipated, has accepted the mission to Spain.

FOR SALE.—See Breeden's advertisement of a large, fine dwelling and five acre lot in the suburbs of the city.

☞Mr. Ehrick has at the police office a small mahogany box containing various articles of jewelry It was found by the city marshal of New Albany. The owner can get it by application to Mr. E.

☞The N. Y. Herald says that the Queen of Spain has agents here, who have command of two millions of dollars, to be invested in this country. The same paper states that most of the crowned heads of Europe are doing an active business in the way of investments in the United States. Louis Phillippe had large possessions in our Republic, and Louis Napoleon has sent from three to five millions here to be invested by his agents. It is said that the greatest operators in this way are the petty princes of Germany, whose investments in American securities amount, it is believed, to fully fifty millions of dollars.

☞One Michael Myers had one Helfrich arrested on a felony warrant, and Helfrich then placed Myers in a similar predicament. "When rogues fall out honest men get their dues," is very applicable here.

The river continues about at the same stage as before. Weather cloudy with some little rain.—The telegraph reports another slight rise at Pittsburg. Captain Archer, of the Potomac, from Cairo last night, reports only 20 inches water on Pappy Creek bar.

Steamer Hazel Dell Sunk.—This boat, which has been running for some time as a regular packet between this and Owensboro, struck a log at Haunted House night before last and sunk to her decks. It is stated that she broke between thirty and forty timbers. She was lying in a dangerous condition.

The Fanny Bullitt.—This steamer will leave Cairo for New Orleans on Thursday, and not Saturday, as the printers made us say yesterday. Passengers who take the cars to-morrow will reach Cairo in time for the Fanny.

The Potomac.—We are indebted to the attentive clerk of the Potomac for a memorandum and manifest. She will return to Cairo this evening. Capt. Archer is in command, who is a guarantee that passengers will fare well.

The Poland, Captain Gracey, laid over till to-day, when she will positively leave. Mr. Frisbee, a gallant gentleman, has charge of the office.

The T. R. Stevenson takes the same destination. The Jim Brown in Cumberland Trade.—This steamer will take the place of the Hazel Dell in the Owensboro trade. Capt. Bernard has taken command of the Time. She is an excellent boat.

Mr. Clarson of the Rochester, has our thanks for a copy of the manifest. The R. will leave at 10 o'clock to-day.

The Mariner is the mailboat for Cincinnati to-day.

The Cincinnati Commercial of yesterday says:

Capt. Ed. Carter, of this city, on Saturday last, purchased the steamer Grapeshot, from Captain McBride, at St. Louis, for $6,000, for the Arkansas River trade.

Captain Sam McCullough, late of the burned Great West, has purchased one-fourth of the steamer J. B. Ford, as she now lies at Wheeling, and will control her destinies hereafter.

POLICE PROCEEDINGS.—Monday, Oct. 11.—John Cahill was before the court on a warrant for assault by Adam Black. Bail in $100 to answer a misdemeanor.

Hugh Ass, James Talbott, and Chas. Shaply, disorderly and riotous conduct and defacing the property of Elvira Glover. Continued.

Willis C. and Lacy R. Mitchell, killing Henry Karthman. Bail was required in the sum of $1,500 each for their appearance before the circuit court. Bail was given.

William Willett, Joseph Maland, and A. Martin, drunk and disorderly conduct. Bail in $200 for six months.

Thos. Murphy, Wm. McLaughlin, and Thomas Cochran, drunk and fighting. Bail in $100 each for one month and $100 to answer a misdemeanor.

Timothy Murphy, drunk and disorderly conduct. Bail in $200 for three months.

J. J. T. Murray and Henry Russell were sworn in as deputy marshals.

Docket Cases.—H. A. Myers, fined $20; John Ogle fined $20; Honora Hanley, fined $3; Mike Allen, fined $20; Peter Keller, fined $50; John McMehar, fined $20; Henry Hollenkamp, fined $100.

POSTPONEMENT OF SALE OF FINE STOCK.—The sale of fine stock advertised by N. J. Smith, of Midview, Ky., to come on at Thursday, the 8th, is postponed until Friday, the 15th instant, at which time the sale will positively take place. See advertisement. o6 d6*

POSTMASTERS REMOVED.—The postmasters at Belleville, Galesburg, and Springfield, Ill., have been removed by order of the President. All the Illinois postmasters who were appointed by the Executive have now been removed, with the exception of the one at Jacksonville.

☞We learn from the Montgomery (Ala.) Mail that Gen. Walker, of Nicaragua, passed through that city on Sunday week, on his way to Mobile, and, perhaps, Nicaragua. A gentleman who conversed with him informs the editor of the Mail that Gen. Walker spoke of his affairs as in a most prosperous condition.

☞We hear it rumored that our military companies, ball clubs, and other associations intend to make a handsome demonstration for Miss Avonia Jones's benefit and last appearance to-morrow evening. It will be a worthy compliment worthily bestowed.

SEDUCTION AND INFANTICIDE—MORE MYSTERY. Our readers will remember that a short time ago, under the heading of a "Mysterious Visit," we copied from the Memphis Appeal a statement that a mysterious visit had been made in the night to a house on the Raleigh road (that had for some time been closed) by a physician and two ladies, one of whom, it was suspected, had lately been there. The Appeal now states that on Wednesday a circumstance occurred that has cleared up, to some extent, the mystery described.

On that evening, beneath a tree not far from the residence spoken of, was found a small box, and near it the body of a full grown infant in an advanced state of decomposition. Both had evidently come from a shallow hole close by, which had been scratched in to receive the box. The latter had been disinterred and the body taken from it did not appear. There were no marks of dogs or hogs having disturbed the remains of the child. It was found that there had been foul play. There appeared to have been sufficient exertion made to prevent the putrefaction of the stuff, producing death by injuring the brain, one of the eyes was forced from its socket, &c. As the evidence at which the mysterious midnight visit took place was within three hundred yards of the spot, those acquainted with the facts naturally connected the visit with the murder of the child, and a coroner's investigation was put in immediate motion.

Mr. Peyton testified he had been in the house since that was occupied and had seen nothing good which had been taken place, but was unable to procure satisfactory evidence upon the subject. Another witness stated that when he came out of his house he had heard a child. He went out and found it proceeded from the lot where the midnight visit was made. He had seen a doctor there, and a woman whom he suspected to be a lady's nurse she had heard her name mentioned in the conversation. Numerous evidence proved the fact that a child had been born in the house and the physician and nurse who attended on that occasion were called upon to testify as witnesses.

Neither of the two were present at the birth, although the doctor was there soon after and performed the necessary duties to the little one. The nurse stated that she was compelled to go home that night, and could not remain in attendance on the mother, as the doctor wished her to do. It was therefore decided that she should take the babe with her and nurse it. She did so, but was under the impression that it would not live, as she thought it was of premature birth. Her expectation proved correct. She before morning the child was a corpse. She informed the physician of the occurrence, who sent a small box for the body, which was put into a coffin, the driver screwed on the lid and took it away. She had visited the mother once since the death of the child.

The physician corroborated the woman's evidence; he gave the body and the coffin to the driver to take the child to be buried at the South Memphis burying ground. The mother is a very young lady of highly respectable parentage, who had become a victim to the arts of a seducer; he had made inquiries as to the name of the lady, but had not been able to ascertain the name of any other at another; there was an evident determination to keep the true name concealed.

Col. Wm. M. Perkins testified that he lived in the next house out of the city, and that about two or three weeks ago on Sunday, he was stopped by the physician who had just testified and who was in a buggy with another gentleman; both of them declared upon their word that two more honorable or respectable ladies did not live in Memphis. The jury brought in a verdict that the deceased came to its death by violence from the hands of some person unknown to them.

It will be observed the appeal has omitted names in kindness to the family of the unfortunate lady concerned. There is no evidence at present connecting her with the murder.

THE EXPLOSION AT HAVANA.—The purser of the steamship Black Warrior furnishes the New Orleans Picayune with the following particulars of the explosion at Havana, briefly alluded to some days ago in a telegraphic dispatch:

On the 28th ult., at 4½ P. M., the Naval Magazine at Havana, situated at the head of the harbor, containing over one hundred and fifty thousand pounds of gunpowder, several hundred shells, fuses, together with a large quantity of rockets, fire works, &c., exploded. The shock was felt, as described by the inhabitants of the city, very truly awful.

Thus far, there had been found in the ruins and about the ground dead bodies and 165 wounded—4 of whom died shortly after being removed to the hospital.

Four some miles around the city filled with all descriptions of destructive missiles, and stones, shells, &c., were picked up some long distance from the building and into the bay.

No damage was done to the vessels at anchor. The dead bodies of three soldiers were blown through the air to the slope of Fort Atarres, nearly a quarter of a mile off. There were upwards of 300 persons employed on the new sugar warehouses, in the immediate vicinity of the disaster, mostly coolies, and among them the loss of life and limb appears to have been the greatest. At the military guard of the magazine, consisting of a sergeant and 16 men, only a remnant of a man's body were no doubt yet under the ruins and in the waters of the harbor.

The destruction of the large and new sugar warehouses, some twenty buildings, several of which were finished, and the other in course of construction, was complete. Nothing now remains but a mass of stones and rubbish. The commission was so great as to destroy the gas-meters, rendering the gas works, for the present, entirely useless; and it will require at least three months before the city can be lighted. Every residence is more or less affected by the shock; several buildings sustained great damage.

Mississippi Central Railroad.—From a private letter by the Argus, we learn that the President of the Mississippi Central Railroad, who has been in England a short time, has closed a contract for about 8,000 tons of iron, sufficient to complete eighty-eight miles of the road through the Mississippi Valley, being the connecting link between Cairo and New Orleans. The successful completion of this link will be the occasion for congratulation, as the facilities for the transportation of the walls and produce will be greatly increased, and establishes a continuous line of railway via the lakes from Bangor, Me., to New Orleans.—N. Y. Post, Friday.

The most direct route from N. O. to N. Y. when the Mississippi Central Railroad is finished, will be via Nashville, Louisville, Indianapolis, and Crestline.

SHOOTING A MINISTER.—We learn that the Rev. P. E. Green, Methodist preacher in charge of the Warren county Circuit, was shot at Montalbon on yesterday morning, by a man named Fisher. The wound is supposed to be mortal. Fisher has fled.

All we could hear of the cause of the shooting was, that Fieder's wife had joined the church lately —that Fisher meeting Mr. Green, abused him terribly, and finally pulled out a pistol and shot him. We hope the miscreant will be apprehended and meet his just desert.—Vicksburg Whig.

The trial of Ben Ball, charged with aiding in the escape of slaves, was brought to a close this morning, in the Mason circuit court, and the jury rendered a verdict of not guilty. It will be recollected that Ball was arrested, some months ago, on the charge that he had enticed certain slaves from their masters, and then, after a reward was offered, returned them to the owners and claimed the reward, pretending that he had captured them in their attempt to run away. We understand that Ben says that he is done with nigger catching.—Maysville Eagle.

DECISIONS OF THE COURT OF APPEALS OF KENTUCKY.

Guthrie et al. vs Hay;
Bradley vs Hutchinson;
Williams et al. vs Shaw; were argued.
Enderes vs Williams; cross appeal granted.

Williamson vs. Williamson. From Renton Circuit.

James and Keturah Williamson exhibited their petition in the Circuit Court, praying partition of a certain tract of land, to two-ninths of which they alleged that they had title, to five other ninths of which their infant brothers and sisters were entitled, and that the remaining two-ninths were claimed by their father, Geo. T. Williamson, as his at law to two of his children, who had previously died intestate and without issue, and subsequently to the death of General Taylor in infancy, intestate, and without issue.

Geo. T. Williamson, said the answered, admitting the allegation of plaintiff's petition and uniting in the prayer for partition.

The infants answered, by guardian, ad litem, and denied the right of their father to two-ninths of the land, which he claimed as heir at law to his two deceased children.

The Circuit Court directed a partition, recognizing as valid the claim of Geo. T. Williamson to two-ninths of the land.

The guardian ad litem of the infants brought the case, by appeal, to this court.

It was decided by this court that neither the plaintiff, James and Keturah, nor their father, George T. Williamson, had any interest in the land, the partition of which was sought, and the judgment of the Circuit Court was reversed.

After the mandate of this court was entered in the court below, viz: on the 15th October, 1857, that court dismissed the petition of the plaintiffs as to the infants, of whom alone it was concerned, were left precisely where they were before the action was commenced.

At the same time an allowance was made to Hon. S. M. Moore, the guardian ad litem of the infants, of $1,250 for his services in the Court of Appeals, to be finally to be paid by the plaintiffs, and he was authorized to use our execution against the plaintiffs to enforce payment of this allowance. At the same time judgment was rendered in favor of said infant defendants against the plaintiffs for their costs expended in the action. The action was thus terminated.

Subsequently on the 16th October, a motion was made by the plaintiffs for an apportionment of the costs, and upon the motion it was adjudged that Geo. T. Williamson should pay a portion of the costs, and he was ordered to pay to the plaintiffs $1,250 as his portion of the costs. From that order or judgment Geo. T. Williamson appealed.

Held—The order against Geo. T. Williamson was unauthorized by law and is erroneous.

1st. It is not in accordance with equity, the matter of decreeing or not decreeing costs is within the discretion of the court, except so far as that discretion is limited or controlled by the 14th section of chapter 84, Revised Statutes, by the word "costs" is meant the costs that are ordinary and customary incidents of the proceedings in the court, including an attorney's fee, as allowed by the statute, and, while one party may recover against the other and not extraordinary expenses incurred by a party, such as large counsel fees, in the case, the word "costs" in this connection has rather a technical significance. In this case there is nothing to show that the regular legitimate costs of the action amounted to more than a few dollars, much less $250. In fact, it is evident that the sum of $1,250 was intended for other and different purposes, and not in reference to the guardian ad litem for services in the Court of Appeals. This sum then formed no part of the costs of the action.

2. The judgment against Geo. T. Williamson cannot be sustained by the 14th section of the 84th Code, which authorizes the allowance to a guardian ad litem, appointed upon the application of the infant, of a reasonable fee for his services, to be paid by the plaintiff and taxed in the costs. Taxed in the case against whom? Of course against an adverse unsuccessful party. But Geo. T. Williamson was not an adverse unsuccessful party. When the action was dismissed, and the question of costs determined, he was no judgment against him for costs in favor of any one, but the effect was a judgment in favor of the infants against the plaintiffs for costs.

3. Nor is this case within section 555 of the code that section provides that, in the proceedings authorized by that chapter of the code the costs of the division and allotment of the respective shares of the parties, the costs of their interests, and the costs arising from any contest of the same shall be paid by the party adjudged to bear the wrong.

The action of Williamson vs Williamson for partition was not a proceeding authorized by that chapter of the code. (See chap. 16). There were no division and allotment of the respective shares of the parties, but it decided that the parties had no right to a division, because they had no interest in the lands sought to be divided.

Geo. T. Williamson could not properly be adjudged to be in the wrong, in any context of law or fact in the case, which he claimed and held at law to be his two deceased children's interest in the lands. He raised no question, but simply admitted the allegations of the petition and united with the plaintiffs in their prayer for partition.

4. Sec. 14, chap. 15, Rev. Stat. Statutes, 204, does not authorize the judgment against Geo. T. Williamson, for the costs, gave to courts of Chancery no more power or discretion than they possessed before. It was not intended to give, nor does it give, to the courts such power as was exercised in Wheeler vs. Wheeler, 7 Dana, 170, and other cases. The revised statutes, and in sec. 555, is undoubtedly used in the same sense in which it is defined above.

5. There is an additional objection to the judgment against Geo. T. Williamson. At the time it was entered the case had been finally disposed of. The action had been dismissed, and the question of costs settled against the plaintiffs in favor of the infants, and a judgment against the parties no costs at all were adjudged. After that there was no power to set aside the judgment of dismissal; nor was the action in any mode reinstated in court. He had not received, therefore, how the Circuit Court could properly at a subsequent term and such a motion as the one which was entertained, and upon which the judgment against Geo. T. Williamson was rendered. The case was made for an equitable apportionment of costs.

Judgment reversed.

FIRE INSURANCE.—The rates of premiums for fire insurance are too high. They are as high now as they were before the introduction of a copious supply of water into most of our large cities, and, as this has greatly diminished the liability to loss by fire, the companies managed with any good degree of discrimination have been making large profits for several years.

The Etna Insurance Company, of Hartford, has just made an extra dividend of 5 per cent. on its capital of one million dollars. Its January and July dividends were each 10 per cent. The Springfield company has declared a quarterly dividend of 13 per cent., and most of the well managed companies are making large dividends, besides accumulating a great surplus. Of the one million dollars capital of the Etna, spoken of above, only $200,000 has been paid in, the other $800,000 having been added from surplus earnings.

The stocks of the Boston companies, doing a large fire business, are selling at a very high figure. The Fireman's is selling at 140 per cent premium; the Manufacturer's at 95 premium; Eliot, 70 premium; National, 64 premium; North American, 55 premium; Boylston, 50 premium, &c. The Merchant's is not allowed to be sold out of the company, but it probably would bring as much as the Manufacturer's or Fireman's.—Boston Traveler.

Since the introduction of steam engines and a pay department, very few fires have occurred in this city, and none involving a heavy loss.

PRIZE MONEY AND THE "ECHO."—The statements with which we have hitherto said in reference to the disposition of the slaver "Echo," and the amount of prize money accruing to those who were directly instrumental in her capture, appear to be founded upon an entire misapprehension of the case. Deriving our information from the most authentic source, we may, perhaps, be able to state the real course which will be taken in the matter.

The United States marshal for South Carolina gave Lieut. Maffit a receipt for 306 Africans, for which number $25 per head, amounting in all to $7,650, will be awarded as prize money to the officer of the home squadron and the officers and crew of the Dolphin. This sum will be distributed as follows: The flag officer receives one twentieth, the commanding officer of the Dolphin two-twentieths, and the balance is distributed to the officers and the crew of the Dolphin, according to rank and rate. It is doubted, however, whether the flag officer (Commodore Mitchell) will receive another twentieth, as he was absent, on leave, from his station at the time of the capture. This question will doubtless be determined by the Attorney General.

After the prescribed legal forms have been gone through with, and the Echo has been libeled, she will be sold at public auction. Half of the proceeds will be taken by the Government, according to a special provision of the act authorizing the vessel's pension fund. The other half will be divided among the officers and crew of the Dolphin, according to the same rule by which the prize money of the Africans is distributed. Eighteen of the Africans died after their capture by Lieut Maffit. For these the per capita of $25 will not be paid, but only for those who were delivered alive into the hands of the U. S. Marshal.—Wash. States.

The Murderer of Mr. Clark Taylor.—We learn, on what we consider good authority, that the man who was the brutal murderer of poor Hibbetts, in Lowndes county, has recently confessed that he also murdered Mr. A. C. Taylor, of this county, who was found butchered in his house, near Columbus. He says that he saw Mr. Taylor receive about $1,500 in this city, and that therefore he and two or three others were conspired to rob and murder him.—Taylor lay in ambush for his victim three days or three nights before he came home. At length he came and was murdered; but they got no money.—When asked why he had kept the dog out of the way for them. This wretch is now in Hayneville jail, and will surely be hanged.—Montgomery (Ala.) Mail.

Cruel Murder.—A friend writing from Cabin Creek, Lewis county, gives us the following account of a cruel murder: A middle aged Dutchman was committed in this county a few days since, the circumstances of which, as I learned them, were these: A peddler who had for some time past been canvassing the country, selling jewelry and dry goods, was found concealed on Quick's Run, between some logs, apparently murdered and beaten in a most horrible and cruel manner. It is generally believed that the perpetrator of this horrible outrage thought that he had a considerable sum of money about his person, and this, together with the few articles of merchandise that he possessed, induced them to fall upon and stone him to death. The murderers as yet are unknown.—Maysville Eagle.

The English at Tien Tsin.—A correspondent of the New York Journal of Commerce, writing from China, says that, when the English entered Tien Tsin, the soldiers and sailors were guilty of the most violent and shameful acts, for which they have received no punishment, and have not even been called to account. They have broken into the stores and plundered them shoe Lord Elgin and his suite were in the town, and near by; they attempted to ravish Chinese women in their houses, and, when their husbands attempted to protect them, murdered them in cold blood!

Baptist Church Difficulties—Trial of Rev. J. R. Graves.—We believe it is pretty generally known to our citizens that the congregation of the First Baptist Church of this city are involved in a serious difficulty on account of what a majority of the members regard as the "grossly immoral and unchristian conduct" of one of its prominent members, Rev. J. R. Graves, editor of the Tennessee Baptist. Charges have been preferred against Mr. Graves.—Nash. Banner.

Death of Reliance.—This celebrated racer, whose performances on the turf elicited the admiration of the sporting community nearly twenty years since, died at the stables of his owner, R. G. Harris, Esq., in St. Mary's county, Md., a few days ago. He was in his 23d year.

RHEUMATISM.—A Case of Three Months' Standing Cured.—George W. Henderson, of Pittsburg, says: "After suffering for three months with Rheumatism, a part of the time so severely as to confine me to my bed, I have been entirely cured by using Boerhave's Holland Bitters. I have had one attack since, but found almost instantaneous relief in the same medicine. It is, in my opinion, a sure remedy for Rheumatism." oct9 j&bcod3&w1

LOUISVILLE AGENCY OF THE
NEW YORK
Life Insurance Company.

At a Meeting of the Local Directors of the New York Life Insurance Co.
HELD at the office of Wm. S. Vernon, in the city of Louisville, Ky., Oct. 6th, 1858, the following was unanimously adopted:
The undersigned, President and Directors of the Company, have examined the report and exhibit of the New York Life Insurance Company for the half year ending July 1st, 1858, and being satisfied with its prosperous condition, cordially recommend it to the encouragement and support of the community.
The New York Life Insurance Company has been in existence fourteen years; its capital has attained the sum of $1,500,000, invested in state stocks, bonds, and mortgages on real estate.
We think it a most safe and profitable mode of investing money. The profits accure to the benefit of the insured, and have averaged not less than 30 per cent per annum on the premium paid.
Besides these investments in stocks, &c., the law of New York requires as additional security that $100,000 shall be deposited with the State Comptroller, to meet any lawful demands which the Company may fail to pay.
We invite attention to the nature, objects, and advantages of life insurance—as set forth by this Institution.
It will be seen by the above statement that this Company is on a flourishing condition. Those desirous of information in regard to the subject of life insurance would do well to call on the local agent of the above Company, who will give them any information they may be desired, or for reference apply to either member of the Local Board, all of whom are insured in this office.

Thinking it strange that two musketoes could have drawn so much blood, he concluded to watch their motions and soon discovered that the survivor was trying to draw their fill and then fly up on the bar and, thrusting their bodies through a mesh, the crowd of outsiders would pitch in and draw them off. ## DYSPEPSIA AND FITS.
Dr. O. PHELPS BROWN,
THE GREAT CURER OF CONSUMPTION was for several years so badly afflicted by Dyspepsia that for a part of the time he was confined to his bed. He was eventually cured by a prescription furnished him by a young clairvoyant girl. This prescription, given him by a mere child, while in a state of trance, has cured everybody who has taken it, never having failed once. It is equally as sure in cases of FITS as of DYSPEPSIA. The ingredient may be found in any drug store. I will send this valuable prescription to any person on the receipt of one stamp to pay postage. Address DR. PHELPS BROWN,

LOUISVILLE BONE MILL,

CORNER TWENTY-FIRST AND GRAYSON STS. Bones to order in all the quantities desired, for manure or gardening that I keep constantly on hand a large quantity of the highly valuable MANURE, and would respectfully solicit their patronage.

In England, Germany, and in the Eastern States of this country, this kind of Manure has been used for years, and with the greatest success. The best way to use it is to strew from 200 to 300 pounds per acre in the hill, and let it lie a deep as practicable; for Trees, it is very profitable to use two pounds in the bottom of each hole; for Corn and Pumpkins, put a handful in each hill; for Potatoes, Cotton, &c., strew thinly in drills or furrows. One of the principal reasons why this Manure is in the hands of so few farmers being confined to take at one load, in a two horse wagon, the equivalent of twenty to twenty-five loads of horse or common stable manure.

I am prepared to furnish any desired quantity, at the shortest notice.

SALE OF THE

LEXINGTON AND DANVILLE

RAILROAD,

J. Punnett and I. Seymour, Plaintiffs,

vs.

BY virtue of the judgment rendered by the Fayette Circuit Court, in the above cause, I, the undersigned, will sell at public auction, ON THURSDAY, THE 19TH NOVEMBER NEXT, the entire Lexington and Danville Railroad (being that part which is completed and the part unfinished), with its franchises, rolling stock, and embracing the road-bed and superstructure where the same is laid down, the right of way, and all lots of land of the company, in and adjacent to the road track, with all the buildings, stations, car houses, wharves, bridges, water houses, fixtures, and other improvements belonging to said road, together with all the franchises, rights, and privileges of the Lexington and Danville Railroad Company.

Also, all the Rolling Stock of the Company, consisting of 11 of which locomotives and six Platform Cars; one Hack and a lot of Cars used in grading by contractors; a quantity of shop tools and machinery, and sundry entings, all of which will be sold separately, if the road fails to sell, if it should be deemed advisable, that part of the road with the appurtenances, viz: the road-bed, superstructure, and the anchorage of the bridge on the north side of the Kentucky River, and thence to Danville; and also portions of the loose property.

At the same time and place, I will sell separately and in suitable lots, about 20,000 Cross Ties, lying along the line of the road between Nicholasville and the Kentucky river—a large quantity of Wire Rope, used in the bridge across the Kentucky river, intended for the bridge; sundry houses, shops, and stables, and several lots in the town of Lexington.

Chair and Spikes and ——ton of Iron Rails.

Terms.—The sale will be on credits of 4, 8, 12, 16, 20, and 24 months, in equal installments, bearing interest accruing bonds, having the force of a judgment, bearing six per cent. interest from day of sale, and with good security, to be approved by me, of one or more of the following kinds, viz: 1st, Personal security; 2d, Bonds of the Lexington & Danville Railroad Company; 3d, Bonds of the Lexington & Danville Railroad Company, of the Louisville & Frankfort Railroad Company, of the Louisville & Lexington Railroad Company; 2d, Mortgage on real estate in counties near this railroad, or in Jefferson or Kenton; 4th State and United States bonds.

Possession of the property will be delivered immediately on compliance with the terms of sale, when the sale is completed and in running order from Lexington to Nicholasville, and the part of the road in the counties of Jefferson and Lexington Railroad Company, terminable on six months' notice, and possession of the road will be given on a transfer of the lease with the right to receive the future profits.

The road is also graded ready for the iron from Nicholasville to the river—and the Suspension bridge, towers, and anchorage completed. There has been expended for construction on this road over $700,000—at fair prices for labor.

The property will be exhibited to persons desirous of purchasing by Geo. Leslie Lexington, Ky., and I will be the undersigned, at Lexington, letters of inquiry may be addressed.

J. A. GRINSTEAD, Commissioner.

Lexington, Sept. 2, 1858.—s9 d2w

Journal, Louisville, copy till day of sale, and forward account to Commissioner, with certificate of publication.

Brown's Essence of Jamaica Ginger.

FREDERICK BROWN, Chemist and Druggist, northeast corner of Chestnut and Fifth streets, Philadelphia, sole manufacturer of Brown's Essence of Jamaica Ginger, which is recommended and prescribed by the Medical Faculty, and has become the standard Family Medicine of the United States.

This Essence is a preparation of unusual excellence. In summer diarrhœa, indigestion, cholera morbus, and in cases of prostration of the digestive functions, it is of inestimable value. During the prevalence of epidemic cholera and other complaints of children, it is peculiarly efficacious. Prepared only by the inventor, and for sale by druggists generally.

Nov. 1.—To prevent the spurious preparations being counterfeited, a new steel engraving, executed at a great cost, will be found on the outside of the wrapper, in order to guard the purchaser against imposition by unprincipled worthless imitations.

Prepared only by FREDERICK BROWN, and for sale at his Drugand Chemical Store, northeast corner of Fifth and Chestnut streets, Philadelphia, and by all respectable Druggists in Kentucky and in the United States.

MADAME BLANCHE,

BOTANICAL AND FEMALE PHYSICIAN,

OFFICE

On Fourth st., between Market and Jefferson.

THE following are among a few of the Diseases which Madame Blanche cures without fail: Coughs, Colds, Consumption, Croup, Influenza, Asthma, Bronchitis, and which she discovered the Tried Sovereign Remedy for the cases of the Skin, Lumbago, Scrofula, Rheumatism, Acute and Chronic Diseases of the Liver, Kidneys, Dropsy, Piles, and all derangements of the Stomach, Liver, and Bowels, and also all chronic Female Diseases, and Pain of the Head and Side or Back. Palpitation of the Heart and Sick Headache cured in from one to three hours. The Madame uses no mineral medicines. Curvature of the Spine cured and straightened. "Which is the person's care who drinks poison? Is it not the person who takes it? Which is another's poison? is not old and time saving. So nature provides a remedy for all persons and all diseases, but to find them nature herself must be searched and studied. Such has been the Madame's study and practice for years successfully. may11 d1y
